

Index of charts and tables

Charts

	Executive summary	5
1	Market-implied default probabilities over the next five years for selected sovereign debt	5
2	Price to book ratios of banking sectors following past financial crises	6
3	Investor perceptions: has your confidence in risk-weighted assets gone up or down?	6
1	Global financial environment	7
1.1	Global growth revisions	7
1.2	Leverage ratios	7
1.3	Gross cross-border claims by all BIS-reporting banks by recipient region	8
1.4	International ten-year spot government bond yields	8
1.5	Holdings of US Treasury securities	8
1.6	Market-implied default probabilities over the next five years for selected sovereign debt	9
1.7	Probability of a high-impact event in the UK financial system	9
1.8	Cumulative flows into higher-risk assets following central bank policy announcements	9
1.9	Global asset class positioning by investment funds	12
1.10	Flows into mutual funds investing in higher-risk asset classes	12
1.11	Cumulative investment flows into equity and bond funds	12
1.12	Changes in asset prices since the June 2012 Report	13
1.13	Primary corporate debt market conditions	13
1.14	Spreads of selected euro-area government bonds over German bunds	14
1.15	Tier 1 capital ratios	14
1.16	Issuance of term bank senior secured and unsecured debt in public markets	14
1.17	Major UK banks' loan to deposit ratio	15
1.18	Major banks' indicative senior unsecured bond spreads and UK retail funding spread	15
1.19	Cost of default protection for selected banking systems	15
1.20	Spreads on lending to UK households and corporates	16
1.21	Credit Conditions Survey lending spreads	16
1.22	Sterling lending to UK private non-financial corporations and individuals	16
1.23	UK household secured credit availability	17
1.24	Loan to value and loan to income on new UK mortgage lending: 75th percentile	17
1.25	Euro-area lending growth	17
Box 1
A	Change in French and German resident banks' claims since June 2011	10
B	Resident retail deposits in selected euro-area countries	10
C	Cumulative capital flows for selected euro-area countries	10
D	Selected ten-year government bond spreads to German bunds	11
2	Short-term risks to financial stability	18
2.1	Contributions to the change in major UK banks' core Tier 1 capital ratios	18
2.2	Major UK banks' revenues, costs and profits	18
2.3	Major UK banks' and G-SIBs' price to book ratios	19
2.4	European banks' market-based capital ratios	19
2.5	The difference between the book and fair value of customer loans over time	19
2.6	UK banks' provisions and estimated provisions under expected loss accounting	20
2.7	Analysts' consensus forecasts of major UK banks' return on equity	20
2.8	Number of PPI-related complaints	20
2.9	Liquid assets as a proportion of stressed outflows by banking sector	21
2.10	Aggregate liquid asset holdings of UK banks as a percentage of FSA Individual Liquidity Guidance (ILG)	21
2.11	Forecasts of Greek public debt to GDP ratios	22
2.12	Evolution of UK banks' gross exposures to vulnerable euro-area countries	22
2.13	European banking systems' exposures to emerging Europe	23
2.14	Gross capital issuance by banking sector in 2012	24
2.15	European banks' equity issuance since 2008	24
2.16	Change in loans by region since 2009	25
2.17	Credit growth in previous cycles	25
2.18	Real lending growth rates	25
2.19	Bank loan growth versus market-based measures of capital	26
2.20	Price to book ratios of banking sectors following past financial crises	26
2.21	Loan to value ratios of UK CRE exposures by proportion of outstanding debt	26
2.22	UK commercial real estate transaction volumes	27
2.23	Commercial real estate yields	27
2.24	Corporate insolvency rates for England and Wales	27
2.25	Sectoral debt to GDP ratios in the United Kingdom	28
2.26	Households' concerns about debt	28
Box 2
A	Japanese asset prices	29
B	Bank loans relative to total assets in non-financial corporate sector by firm size	29
C	Japanese real GDP and domestic credit	30
3	Medium-term risks to financial stability	32
3.1	Average duration of recessions	32
3.2	Declines in output and gross external debt positions	33
3.3	Gross public debt in advanced economies	33
3.4	Real yields on UK and US government bonds	33
3.5	Credit growth and house prices in EMEs	34
3.6	Deviations of house price to rent ratios from historical averages	34
3.7	Household debt	34
3.8	Government financing needs and domestic bank claims on government	35
3.9	Sovereign debt holdings by selected banking systems	35
3.10	Correlation of risk between selected sovereigns and their domestic banking systems	35

3.11	Currency breakdown of UK-resident banks' external assets and liabilities	36
3.12	Concentration of UK-resident MFIs' repo activity at end-2011	36
3.13	Global bank repo lending by top ten US prime MMFs	37
3.14	US prime MMFs' assets under management	37
3.15	Changes in US prime MMFs' exposures to international banking systems over 2011	37
3.16	Decomposition of US prime MMFs' funding to UK banks	38
3.17	Investor perceptions: has your confidence in risk-weighted assets gone up or down?	38
3.18	Variability of probability of default estimates from 2007–11	39
3.19	Variability of overall risk weights, probability of default and loss given default estimates in 2011	39
3.20	Capital increases required for alternative assessments of risk weights	40
3.21	Average 'ratings uplift' for US, UK and European global systemically important banks	40
3.22	Comparison of activities prohibited for deposit-taking entities under different structural reform proposals	41
3.23	Historical return on equity and return on assets for banks and non-bank corporates	41
3.24	Typical length of deferral in long-term incentive plans (LTIP) relative to cycles	42
Box 3
A	LCH.Clearnet Ltd IRS client clearing volumes	44
4	Macprudential policy since the June 2012 Report	46
4.1	Aggregate liquid asset holdings of UK banks as a percentage of FSA Individual Liquidity Guidance (ILG)	49
5	Prospects for financial stability	50
5.1	Market-implied default probabilities over the next five years for selected sovereign debt	51
5.2	UK credit gap and credit growth	51
5.3	Liquid assets as a proportion of stressed outflows by banking sector	52
5.4	Banks' return on assets before tax	52
5.5	Price to book ratios of banking sectors following past financial crises	52
5.6	Loan to value ratios of UK CRE exposures by proportion of outstanding debt	53
5.7	Variability of overall risk-weight estimates in 2011	53
5.8	UK banks' exposures to vulnerable euro-area economies — country and sector split	54
5.9	Investor perceptions: has your confidence in risk-weighted assets gone up or down?	55
5.10	Typical length of deferral in long-term incentive plans (LTIPs) relative to cycles	56

Tables

2	Short-term risks to financial stability	18
2.A	UK banks' exposures to selected euro-area countries	23
4	Macprudential policy since the June 2012 Report	46
4.A	Summary of recommendations	46