Contents

Recent economic and financial developments
Markets and operations 6
" " 126
" " 252
" " 364

Research and analysis
Capital inflows into EMEs since the millennium: risks and the potential impact of a reversal 26
Recent developments in portfolio insurance 37
The Agents’ scores: a review 47
The impact of low-cost economies on UK import prices 58
The Society of Business Economists’ survey on MPC communications 66
Summaries of recent Bank of England working papers 72
Public attitudes to inflation and interest rates 148
Recent advances in extracting policy-relevant information from market interest rates 157
How do mark-ups vary with demand? 167
On the sources of macroeconomic stability 174
Summaries of recent Bank of England working papers 184
Market expectations of future Bank Rate 274
Globalisation, import prices and inflation: how reliable are the ‘tailwinds’? 283
How has globalisation affected inflation dynamics in the United Kingdom? 292
The economics of global output gap measures 299
Summaries of recent Bank of England working papers 306
The financial position of British households: evidence from the 2008 NMG Research survey 384
Understanding dwellings investment 393
Price-setting behaviour in the United Kingdom 404
Summaries of recent Bank of England working papers 416

Reports
A review of the work of the London Foreign Exchange Joint Standing Committee in 2007 190
Monetary Policy Roundtable 420

Speeches and papers(1)
The Governor’s speech in Bristol 82
The impact of the financial market disruption on the UK economy 85
The return of the credit cycle: old lessons in new markets 91
Money and credit: banking and the macroeconomy 96
Financial markets and household consumption 107
Sovereign wealth funds and global imbalances 196
Monetary policy and the financial system 203
Inflation and the global economy 207
Does sterling still matter for monetary policy? 214
Strengthening regimes for controlling liquidity risk: some lessons from the recent turmoil 223
Inflation, expectations and monetary policy 229
Banking and the Bank of England 310
The Governor’s speech at the Mansion House 314
A tale of two cycles 316
The financial cycle and the UK economy 321
Speeches and papers (continued)
The credit crisis: lessons from a protracted ‘peacetime’ 326
Financial innovation: what have we learnt? 330
Global inflation: how big a threat? 339
Remarks on ‘Making monetary policy by committee’ 347
The structure of regulation: lessons from the crisis of 2007 424
Some lessons for monetary policy from the recent financial turmoil 424
Learning from the financial crisis 424
Concluding remarks on the Royal Economic Society Public Lecture 2008 424
Where next for the UK economy? 425
Some current issues in UK monetary policy 425
Rebuilding confidence in the financial system 425
The Governor’s speech to the CBI, Institute of Directors, Leeds Chamber of Commerce and Yorkshire Forward at the Royal Armouries, Leeds 425
Prospects for the UK economy and challenges for monetary policy 426
Global influences on UK interest rates 426
Monetary policy: sticking to the basics 426
The credit crunch and the UK economy 426
All along the watchtower 427
Money and credit, twelve months on 427

Boxes
A model-based decomposition of sterling government yield curves 14
Repayment of part of the ‘Ways and Means’ facility 20
The injection of reserves via bond-purchase OMOs 22
Balance of payments in EMEs 28
The mechanics of CPPI 39
The performance of CPPI 41
Popular features in CPPI investments 42
Collecting and reporting economic intelligence 48
Filling information gaps 49
Special Liquidity Scheme 142
Term money market rates 144
Additional questions in the February 2008 Bank/GfK NOP survey 150
Interest rate concepts and measurement 165
Volatility of expenditure components, employment and productivity 176
Econometric studies of the causes of the Great Moderation 179
Why have secured funding spreads increased recently? 260
The mechanics of the tri-party repo market 261
Assessing the relative value of offers for foreign currency bonds in the Bank’s OMOs 272
Overnight index swaps 281
Basic trade theory and the terms of trade 285
An accounting decomposition for import price inflation 287
Dividend swaps 371
The use of central bank bills in the implementation of monetary policy 377
The work of the Money Market Liaison Group in 2008 381
Survey method 391
Tobin’s Q for dwellings investment 396

(1) Speeches and papers by the Governors, Directors and senior officials.
Index by author

Benford, J and Driver, R
Public attitudes to inflation and interest rates 148–56

Bowen, A and Mayhew, K
Globalisation, import prices and inflation: how reliable are the 'tailwinds'? 283–91

Corder, M and Roberts, N
Understanding dwellings investment 393–403

Dwyer, J
The Agents’ scores: a review 47–57

Felices, G, Hoggarth, G and Madouros, V
Capital inflows into EMEs since the millennium: risks and the potential impact of a reversal 26–36

Greenslade, J, Millard, S and Peacock, C
How has globalisation affected inflation dynamics in the United Kingdom? 292–98

Greenslade, J and Parker, M
Price-setting behaviour in the United Kingdom 404–15

Hellebrandt, T, Young, G and Waldron, M
The financial position of British households: evidence from the 2008 NMG Research survey 384–92

Joyce, M and Meldrum, A
Market expectations of future Bank Rate 274–82

Joyce, M, Sorensen, S and Weeken, O
Recent advances in extracting policy-relevant information from market interest rates 157–66

Macallan, C and Parker, M
How do mark-ups vary with demand? 167–73

Mac Coille, C
The impact of low-cost economies on UK import prices 58–65

Pain, D and Rand, J
Recent developments in portfolio insurance 37–46

Tanaka, M and Young, C
The economics of global output gap measures 299–305

Taylor, T, de Weymarn, I and Curtis, B
The Society of Business Economists’ survey on MPC communications 66–71

Young, G
On the sources of macroeconomic stability 174–83

2008 Q1 pages 1–120
2008 Q2 pages 121–246
2008 Q3 pages 247–358
2008 Q4 pages 359–435