

Index of charts and tables

Charts

Introduction		6
1	Falls in UK bank equity prices, 1970–2008	6	3.6	US securities' houses exposures to structured credit as a proportion of total assets at end-2008 Q3	20
A	Overview of Financial Stability Report structure	6	3.7	Major UK banks' and LCFIs' market capitalisation	20
1 An extended global credit boom		7	3.8	90-day US Treasury bill yield	20
1.1	Volatility of real GDP growth	7	Box 2
1.2	Bank lending to households and non-financial companies in the United Kingdom	7	A	Outstanding notional amounts of derivatives	21
1.3	Loan to income ratios for house purchases in the United Kingdom	7	B	Gross market value and net credit exposures in OTC derivatives	21
1.4	Real leveraged buyout loan issuance	8	3.9	US money market mutual funds' total assets under management	23
1.5	Financial market liquidity	8	3.10	Maturity profile of US commercial paper issuance	23
1.6	Selected asset prices	8	4 A system-wide response		26
1.7	Major UK banks' customer funding gap, household saving ratio and foreign interbank deposits	9	4.1	Major UK banks' credit default swap premia	26
1.8	Major UK banks' assets	9	4.2	Major UK banks' equity price dispersion and implied volatility	26
1.9	Major UK banks' leverage ratio	9	4.3	Comovement between financial institutions' equity returns	26
2 An adverse spiral develops		10	4.4	Illustration of the variation of default probability with asset uncertainty	27
2.1	International GDP growth forecasts	10	4.5	Major UK banks' Tier 1 capital ratios	27
2.2	UK house prices and activity	10	Box 4
2.3	Loan to value ratios in selected UK house price fall scenarios	10	A	Major UK banks' cumulative write-offs on domestic lending	28
2.4	Spreads on mortgage products by credit quality of borrower	11	4.6	UK banks' price to book ratio	29
2.5	Share of corporate debt accounted for by businesses with interest payments greater than profits	11	4.7	Major UK banks' maturing bonds	30
2.6	Decomposition of sterling-denominated investment-grade corporate bond spreads	11	4.8	Major UK banks' dividend yield	30
2.7	European and US speculative-grade corporate default rates and forecasts	12	4.9	Major UK banks' equity prices, mortgage lending and wholesale funding dependency	30
2.8	Major UK banks' undrawn NFC credit facilities	12	5 Near-term prospects for the financial system		34
2.9	Global residential mortgage-backed securities issuance	12	5.1	Indices of bank CDS premia	34
2.10	Bid-ask spreads on UK residential mortgage-backed securities	13	5.2	Indices of bank equity prices	35
2.11	Anomalies in prices of the ABX sub-prime index (2007 H1 vintage)	13	5.3	Illustrative change in return on bank equity following recapitalisation	35
2.12	Major UK banks' and LCFIs' write-downs and capital issuance since 2007 Q3	13	5.4	Three-month UK interbank rate relative to expected policy rates	35
Box 1			5.5	Spread of three-month US dollar Libor implied by currency swaps over actual rates	36
A	AAA-rated UK prime RMBS and US sub-prime RMBS spreads	15	5.6	Hedge fund returns and net capital inflows	37
B	Credit losses on UK prime RMBS	15	5.7	UK insurance company net income and financial indicators	37
C	Comparison of mark-to-market losses on UK prime RMBS and US sub-prime RMBS	16	5.8	Proportionate changes in selected sovereign credit default swap premia since April Report	37
D	Estimated pre-crisis investor base in UK prime RMBS by institution type and rating	16	5.9	Estimated pre-crisis investors in credit markets	38
3 Institutional risks materialise		17	5.10	Major UK banks' fixed-rate bond spreads	39
3.1	Major UK banks' and LCFIs' credit default swap premia	17	5.11	Major UK banks' customer funding gap	39
3.2	UK GDP growth forecast dispersion and major UK banks' credit default swap premia	17	5.12	Illustrative adjustment path for customer lending to reduce customer funding gap to 2003 levels	39
3.3	Three-month interbank rates relative to expected policy rates	18	5.13	Growth in lending to real economy following past financial crises	40
3.4	Equity prices of distressed institutions	19	5.14	Sterling liquid assets relative to total asset holdings of UK banking sector	40
3.5	Capital positions of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac	19	6 The medium-term agenda		41
			6.1	Long-run capital levels for US commercial banks 1840–1993	41
			6.2	Key components of Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital and relevant regulatory limits under Pillar 1	42

Box 6
A	Dynamic provisioning	44

Tables

2	An adverse spiral develops	10
Box 1
1	Mark-to-market losses on selected financial assets	14
3	Institutional risks materialise	17
3.A	Major central bank operational announcements since April 2008	18
4	A system-wide response	26
Box 4
1	Stress-testing calibrations	28
2	Mark-to-market calibrations	29
Box 5
1	Announced capital raising commitments from UK financial institutions	32
2	Selected government support packages	33
5	Near-term prospects for the financial system	34
5.A	Major UK banks' CDS spreads and equity prices	34
5.B	Typical haircuts applied by prime brokers	36
5.C	Expansion of central banks' balance sheets and availability of government guarantees on banks' wholesale funding	38
6	The medium-term agenda	41
6.A	Key actions to improve resilience	41
6.B	Elements of the Banking Bill 2008	46