Opinions of Sir
Arthur Pigott & Co on the Case of John Burgen.

Mr. Freshfield laid before the Committee the joint Opinion of Sir Arthur Pigott, Sir Wm Garrow, Mr. Bosanquet and Mr. Knapp stating that they were decidedly of Opinion that under all the circumstances of the Case of John Burgen, it would not be expedient to resort to a prosecution prosecution for a Capital Offence, but to permit the prisoner to plead Guilty to an Indictment for the lesser Offence, which will probably insure the Transportation of the Offender, whom it appears desirable to rid the Community of.

In: Bergen, -
