Tho^s. Fellows

Read a letter from Tho^s. Fellows explaining the Cause of his Insolvency to have been in consequence of the purchase of large Quantities of Corn in Russia, and the great loss sustained thereby: — that the Dividend he — would be enabled to pay to his Cred^{rs} will principally depend upon the proceeds of the Sale of 8000 Quarters of Wheat now in the hands of Mess^{rs}.
Scott, Garnett & Palmer: — that he cannot possibly engage to pay any particular Sum, without incurring the risk of rendering his Deed of Ordered. That the Solicitor be directed to transmit £10, to Mr H^y Alington, to discharge the same.

Mr Kaye's Rept^t resp^t M^r G^o - Skidmore's Deed of Trust -

Mr Kaye reported that he had perused the Deed of Mess^{rs} Meremoth & Gamaliel Skidmore to Trustees for the benefit of their Creditors, which contains a release from the Creditors to the Debtors, but as a Dividend of 3/- in the Pound has been paid, it would not not in respect of such release be — inconsistent with the Rules of the Com^{ee} to accede to the Deed. — But it contains an Indemnity from the Creditors to the Trustees, which is not usual in such Cases as the Trust Estate ought to be made the Indemnity and protection of the Trustees. — he therefore would not advise the Bank to execute a Deed containing a Clause that might possibly subject it to pay more than received or may receive for Dividends. —

The same was rejected. —

Mr. Kaye's Report on Hambury & Co's Deed of Assignment

Mr. Kaye also reported that he had perused the Assignment from Mess^{rs} Hambury & Co to Trustees for their Creditors, which includes the Separate Estates of the Debtors, but the Deed contains a proviso that the Trustees shall if they think fit relinquish and give up to Mr Hambury his

80th separate Estate, - this appears very objectionable and no reason whatever is assigned for it.

The Deed also contains a Release to the Debtors without any stipulation for a previous Dividend, so that if the Estate pay nothing the Debtors are completely released from their Debts. - The same was therefore rejected. -
