Pearce & Sons
respecting
J. D. F. Brandon

A Letter was read from Pearce & Son stating the particulars of the affairs of J. D. F. Brandon and describing that the Effects expected to be got in the course of a few months, will produce about 5[£] in the pound to the creditors, and that Mr. Pitt & Mr. Hick two of his principal creditors are are appointed Inspectors with the usual powers, under whose direction M. Brandon will act in all respects, therefore hoping the explanation now given will induce the Bank to desist from proceeding against him. -

Resolved, That the application of J. D. Brandon be acceded to. -

Thos. Rooke
Chas. Rooke

I Read a Letter from Thos. Rooke on behalf of his Brother Chas. Rooke stating the cause of the distinction made by the largest Creditors between Charles, Rooke and H. F. Horneman in taking out a Commission against the latter, and taking an Assignment from Rooke to the Assignees, under that Commission to be in consequence of Mr. Horneman having taken to himself a Bill for £900 which he Secreted and which Bill was found on his person on being Searched. -
That

That there is now in the Bank sufficient to divide $\frac{1}{2}$ in the Pound, and hoped eventually, there will be little if any loss: - and in respect to the 2 Bills - accepted by Dittmann & Co. drawn in the Names of Rooke & Horneman, they were procured without the knowledge of Rooke, whose positive injunction on entering into his Connection with Horneman, most decidedly forbade any accommodation transaction. - therefore requesting the Bank to concur in the arrangement acceded to by the other Creditors. Res

Resolved, That the action against Charles Rooke be discharged, and that the Dividends proposed to be paid, be received on Account. Res

A Letter was read from Chas.
Jennings enclosing the Heads of a Trust Deed from J. D.
Andrews with his Creditors whereby Mr. Andrews is allowed a Letter of License to manage his affairs under the Inspect^r of Mr. Coles, Mr. Brown & Mr. Richards, during three Years, and which Deed Mr. Kaye Stated that he had examined and found many objections, and particularly a Clause for the Creditors to make good any deficiency or top to the Trustees in Proportion according to their respective Claims.

Resolved

That Mr. Cox be directed to receive the Dividends, and that the action against J. D. Andrews be discharged, on obtaining the consents of the parties on the Bill, but that the said Deed be not signed. —

Read a Letter from John In^o. Reay & Nep^o. Reay & Nephew, stating that John Kroehl Acceptor of a Bill for £327 which has their Indorsement on it, is shortly expected from the Continent in Circumstances to liquidate all demands upon him. — They therefore solicited that the Bank will allow the said Bill to stand over two Months from the 12th Instant on Condition of their paying the Interest and Charges incurred thereon, and on giving an Engagement or Security for the punctual payment by that Period, in Case Mr. Kroehl does not retire it before. —

Resolved.

Resolved. That on Mess^{rs} Reay & Nephew giving a Warrant of Attorney for payment on the 20th Jan^y 1817, their application be acceded to.

In: Green

A Letter was read from Mr. Green of Bond Court, Walbroke propos^{ing} to pay one of the Bills against him with Interest on being presented to him, and hoping to be able to make satisfactory arrangements in a few days for paying the rem^t. John Green

Read a Letter from John Green stating that from Balances due to him which ought to be received amounting to £12,000 he had only obtained £833.
Since July last, out of which he had redeemed one of his Bills at the Bank for £790. - therefore Soliciting indulgence for the liquidation of the other Bills against him on paying the Interest with the first Monies he may receive it not being in his power to estimate any given time, but promising without fail to discharge his whole Debt in full.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the Solicitor be directed to write to Mr. John Green for a definite proposal and security.

Mrs. S. Fullarton

Read a letter from Mrs. Hamilton Fullarton proposing to give her Bond for payment of her Bills, by such Instalments as the Bank may think proper to grant, and to pay Interest and all charges thereon: and enclosing a Bond given by her for payment of a Note for £250. to Messrs. Morland & Co. Bankers for the like indulgence which she had fully discharged to convince the Bank of her punctuality.

Ordered, That the Solicitor be directed to acquaint Mrs. Fullarton that the Bank will grant her the indulgence to pay her 2 Bills by Instalments of £75 every Six Months on giving her Bond for the same.

Report respecting Brassey & Co. Trust
Deed.

68

Mr. Kaye reported that he had perused the Assignment from Messrs Brassey Brothers to Trustees for their Creditors, which contains a Release from the Creditors to the Debtors without any provision for a previous Dividend, or whether any Dividend shall be made or not. - A Letter was also read from them stating that they had assigned property consisting of East India Bonds amounting to £6,600, to Trustees, which will enable them to pay a Dividend of $\frac{7}{8}$ in the pound, and which Bonds will be forthwith sold. -

Resolved. That on receiving $\frac{7}{8}$ in the pound, the Secretary be authorized to sign their Deed. -

Mr. Kaye also reported that he had perused the Release from the Creditors of Roberts, Hogg & Howley to

D. on Hogg
& Co. Lys
Release

to them, which releases them from their Debts on receiving Instalment Notes for 4/6 in the pound payable at 4. 8 & 12 Months. - This Instrument Releases the Debtors whether the Composition is Paid or not, so that if the Instalment Notes should not be paid, the Bank will then stand only as Creditors for 4/6 in the pound instead of their whole Debt. -

Resolved, That a Release be granted to them when 4/6 in the pound has been received. -

Robert Hogg Esq.

Read a Letter from J. Drury Vickery Esq. Kofs Solicitor on behalf of Drury Vickery Esq. - respecting the Warrant of Attorney to be given by them as a Collateral Security, for payment of their Debt to the Bank, requesting that in the event of the said Warrant of Attorney being
