Read a Letter from Rob^t Farguhar, Stating that he had delivered over all his real and personal property to three Trustees, John Green, W^m Hercomb and Jas^s Wade Esq^{res} - therefore solicited that proceedings may be stayed against him, and that the Bank will agree to the said Assignment.

The Committee after due Consideration, being satisfied that Mr. Farguhar as knowing that the Bills Discounted from the Parties connected with him were not any of them Solvent, and thereby wilfully imposing on the Bank, was not entitled to the lenity solicited.

Resolved, That this Committee do not alter their Determination, and that the former Minute of the 9th

The proceedings of the last Comm^{ee} were Read.

A Letter was read from Mess^{rs}.
Lane & Bennett on behalf of R^d. Ward & Co.
Soliciting the Bank to Stay Proceedings against them, as also the other Parties on their Bills, - as unless the Actions are withdrawn against their Friends, who were willing to suspend their claims till the Bank were satisfied, they are determined to interfere for their own protection, and will drive Mess^{rs}.
Ward & Co. to the last extremity, which cannot fail to be highly prejudicial to all parties: - therefore requested to be permitted to carry into effect the Terms proposed by paying £500 the 5th Nov^r. next, and £500 every succeeding 3 Months until the whole Debt is discharged with the additional Collateral Security

Resolved

50

Resolved, That the application of George Velton be rejected, and that the Minutes of the 23^d Instant be Confirmed. —

31st October, 1818. —

Present. —

Mr. Deputy Governor,

Mr. Bowden, Mr. Richards. —

Mr. Freshfield's Report respecting the Consultation of Counsel's Opinion
respecting Geo.
Velton. —

Mr. Freshfield reported that in the investigation of the Case of George Velton Subsequent to the period at which the Examinations were before the Committee for Law Suits many material Contradictions appeared in the Statements of the — Witnesses and particularly as to the Evidence in Confirmation of Henry Davis, which rendered it extremely doubtful whether the Prisoner would be convicted although in point of fact, no doubt could be entertained of his guilt by those who investigated the Case independant of legal forms. —

Mr. Freshfield further reported that at the Consultation of the Counsel employed by the Bank which took Place in the usual course, the Contradictions of the Witnesses as stated in their Brief were taken into Consideration and they gave the following written Opinion. Viz^t — Under

"Under the Circumstances of this Case,
 "We are of Opinion that it will be more "expedient not to Try the Prisoner for
 "the Capital Offence."

(Signed) "A. Piggott, - "H. K. Reynolds
 "W. B. Bosanquet, "Wm. Bolland."

Mr Freshfield further reported, that since the Commitment of the Prisoner it had been discovered that he had seduced a young man of respectable connections to utter a forged note, but under circumstances that left no probability of his Conviction upon that charge. -

Resolved,

George Velton, to be allowed to plead Guilty to the minor offences.

That it appearing to the Committee the Prisoner George Velton is a most dangerous character and ought not to be at large, and that from the circumstances reported the Capital Charge might not be sustained, they therefore rescind the Minutes of the 23^d & 30th Inst.th respecting Velton, and Orderd That he be prosecuted with leave to plead Guilty to the Minor Offences.

Rob^t. Jones
respecting Wm.
Lewis.

A Letter was read from Rob^t. Jones No. 93 Cheapside, on behalf of Wm. Lewis of Beak Street, Mercer, Stating that at a Meeting of the Creditors it appeared that 5th p^{ts} in the Pound was as much as he could possibly pay, and the greater part of the Creditors agreed to take it: - Since which time by Subsequent losses and Law Expenses he

126

he is not now enabled to pay more than $3\frac{1}{4}\%$ with Security, which most of his Crs are satisfied with, and that there is no doubt but the whole of them will accept the same, should the Bank agree to do so, — otherwise by his becoming a Bankrupt, it will deprive the Creditors from receiving any thing, as the Exps on so small an Estate must take away the whole.

Resolved. That the Minute of the 14th Instant respecting W^m Lewis be confirmed.
