Wm Manning Esq
with Letter from Thos Austin Esq.
- respecting -
Wm Tomlyn

210
Mr. Manning attended the Comm^{ee}, and produced a Letter from Thos Austin Esq. a Magistrate at Seven Oaks, Kent, respecting the Case of Wm Tomlyn who was apprehended there for uttering a forged Note of £1, and who was suspected of having swallowed two others, when taken; but on the Deposits taken and having been laid before the Committee the Prosecution was declined, the Evidence appearing too slight to warrant his conviction: - the said Mr.
Austin being of a different Opinion, the Parties concerned in the transaction were bound over by heavy recognisances to Prosecute, and he conceived it hard that the Expense should devolve on them, therefore Submitted his opinion accordingly. -

The Committee informed Mr.
Manning that after the Trial if Mr.
Austin would Submit the account of the Expenses, the same should meet due Consideration. -

10th February 1825.

Jas. Cavanagh.

Mr. Kaye Submitted to the Governor the Depositions taken against Jas. Cavanagh for uttering, in London 2 forged Notes of £1 each; — the said Case was considered by the Committee on the 31st Ult^o for a single utterance and the Committee declined to prosecute but another Note being proved against him, and he being known as a common utterer of forged Notes and Counterfeit Coin. —

Ordered, That he be prosecuted, with liberty to plead Guilty to the Minor² Offence. —
