Against Dennis Alsop for uttering a forged note for £10 in Staffordshire.

Resolved, That the said William Griffiths and Dennis Alsop be not prosecuted.

A letter was read from Messrs^{rs} Alexander of Halifax, Yorkshire addressed to the Solicitors of the Bank stating they have been informed by their Deputy Constable that a Man who was confined in York Castle at the same time with Martin West lately convicted for uttering forged notes was taught by West how to negotiate for them and with whom, and offers his assistance in the detection of the offenders. But Messrs^{rs} Alexander wish to know the inclination of the Bank before either themselves or the Deputy Constable interfere further in the Business.

Resolved

Resolved,

That the Bank is disposed to entertain the Question as to this particular case, if the further information when furnished is deemed sufficient, and that Mr. Freshfield be directed to write for it.

The Solicitor
to write to Messrs Alexander for further information
thereon

A letter was next read addressed to the Solicitors from Mr. J. Miller of the Police Office at Liverpool, stating that one David Collins has offered his services to detect several persons who are engaged in selling Forged £5 & £1 Notes; that the Parties he mentions are well known & some of them have been prosecuted by the Bank, and requesting the Instructions of the Bank as to any future proceedings thereon.

Resolved,

That the Bank is disposed to entertain the question as to this particular case also, if the further information when furnished is deemed sufficient, and that Mr. Freshfield be directed to write for it.

Thos. Brutton
Gov. of Stafford
County Prison
communicating information as to the vendors
of forged notes.

A letter was also read addressed to William Manning Esq, from Thomas Brutton, Governor of the County Prison Stafford, stating that he has a man in custody who was lately convicted for uttering Base coin, which he said was bought of John Lawley at Birmingham who also offered him any quantity of forged £1 notes at the rate of 5/- each. Mr. Brutton adds, there is not any doubt but that the said Lawley with one Theodore Moore who was executed in April last for coining, have been very extensive Dealers in forged notes and that the system is still carried on at Birmingham by Lawley and his Gang. And that should the Bank feel disposed to adopt any measures on the information he has now given, Mr. Brutton will be most ready to cooperate with and receive their instructions.
Resolved,

The Bank decline
to avail themselves of the same, on acc^t. of the character

Mr. Freshfield laid before the Committee a correspondence in 1820 with Messrs. Harratt & Co. relative to Messrs. Park & Orr of Trinidad, but not anything appeared therein to sanction the Demand of Henry Fuller Esq of that Island for the sum of £98. 17. 4 Expenses said to have been incurred in the Prosecution of the Bank's claim against the said Messrs. Park & Orr. And as upon a reference to the minutes of this Committee

30 Aug. 1826. Committee it was observed that in July 1820 the sum of £105..4..7 was paid to John Horsley Palmer Esq. to defray law charges paid by him in this case, the further consideration was for the present deferred. —

The proceedings of the last Committee were read.

The following applications were laid before the Committee by Mr. Lawrence and considered, viz:

George and John Ray of Wood Street, postponed from last week state that they are endeavouring to arrange a composition, and that so soon as it is sufficiently in order they will submit it to the Bank for their approval.
