The Governor to confer with the Lord's Committee, whether it may not be advisable to prepare Dies, for Silver pieces of smaller denomination than Dollar Tokens 61. Report of a conference on this subject 65. Further report, in which the Lord's Committee recommended the issuing of Tokens of 3/4 & 1/2 each 68. The Committee considered this proposal, & determined that it would be preferable to confine the first issue to Tokens of 1/2 & 1/4 each 68. The Court of Directors prefer Tokens of 3/4 & 1/2 each, but consent to the recommendation of the Lord's Committee 71. The issue of Tokens determined by the Court, to be in aliquot parts of the fivepence sovereign of the Dollar Token. 71. The Committee of Treasury to treat with the Mint, to carry these measures into effect. 71. Further report from the Governor of a Conference with the Lord's Committee, and that he had given directions for a Die to be engraved for Tokens of 3/4 and also for one for Tokens of 1/2. in case it should be wanted. 72. The Governor reports his conversation with the Officers of the Mint, on the Terms for Coining the new Tokens, & that some Silver had already been sent for that purpose to the Mint 73-75. Propositions of the Officers of the Mint for Coining the Tokens 75. Receipt of the Officers of the Mint for the Silver sent to them 75. Letter from Carl Bathurst, containing Regulations under which the Lord's Committee consent to the Bank's issuing the proposed new Tokens. 75/77. A recommendation to the Court, that Tokens of 1/2 each be issued at the same time with those of 3/4 each 77. An application from Messrs. Mott & Davis, Officers of the Mint, for an advance on the terms for Coining Tokens 74. Mr. Mott & Davis reports, that Mr. Mott & Davis wish to be authorized to prepare new Dies for the 1/2 Tokens, or for the Tokens of 3/4. preference to be given to the new Dies for 1/2 — 79. A recommendation that a Memorial be presented to the Privy Council for leave to stamp & issue new Tokens of 1/2 each to the amount of £500,000 — 100 — A Memorial of the Privy Council, in answer to this Memorial, to be laid before the Court. 114.
