

St. Andrew, Ap.

D. G. back

G. has lately become strongly anti-
- Morgan - or rather Davison - & speaks agst their monopoly.

Sir R. C. has always been so, - & vents it on E.C. - as G now begins to do - I have given E.C. (G. J. J.) several hints to be careful.

Offered seat on Bd of Anglo-Persian
Oil Co by FCT. by desire of Adm
Slade - declined - unless as Gov Director - as hardly free to take such a job privately

Chester 630. (Guinea)

13 WEDNESDAY [348-18]

Treas Com. Nasty discussion over Bk's name having been used as borrower in NY for Treasury Treas loan. Generally approved - but too many queries.
Bk's endorsement of £100 mil (Dutch) Treas
Bills & £10 mil $ Treas Bills to Japs not disclosed! - Acc unreasonable in pretending we sh<sup>d</sup>. Exact full & complete Bal sheet from Chester 630 (g) Gov. before giving keep abroad

Seems to be only stagnation at Treasury - no preparations for future
No meeting of allies to discuss financial positions abroad - Only drift - Current loans in N.Y. are large - & we run along on gold for Ottawa -

Chettle 6.30. (19)

15 FRIDAY [350-16]

This is the lull before the storm -

For example of Treasury procrastination see Treasury letter as to forbidding insurance here of gold for USA to La - urged by BofE - Cornhill as Exch Com.
