

Ascension Day

(Gov^r to Scotland)

11 Egerton Place - 8.

2 FRIDAY [154-212]

- Tax Americans, but C^o only use moral suasion as regards sale of undertakings to U.S. (Eg San Paulo). C. talked hopefully of the freedom of action which default (by Nation) would give him in dealing with public & in asking powers from Parliament. Therefore I judge he is ready for default. But given he doesn't know what it means as regards Exch & foreign purchases. (E.C. agrees) Charles St. 8 ? it would end the war?

In spite of offers from N.Y. to purchase
S. Paulo Ry Alabama + N.O. Atlantic leased lines - C. regularly declares he will only help by vague "moral suasion"
- in other words the buyers must pay Sellers (prevailing) price, or all is off

Treasury 6; all muddled getting worse & worse -

7 WEDNESDAY [159-207]

C. of Ex seems utterly blind to Exchange position + inevitable dangers ahead. Being filled with immediate politics. If the war ends in 3 months - as he seems to reckon - well a good. If not I see every chance of default - but for some unknown reason he is sanguine of turning up as trumps & refuses to face true position at Treasury. Position in U.S. discussed & admitted to be serious. no provision made for accruing debts there, of wh. we have no estimate or JPM to are much in the dark. C. walked up & down protesting that he wished to have balances to lend there, irrespective of cost of int. but he takes no steps to get them.

As a Hanklen job going to memory,
I shall do it no more, for tho' knowing jeopardy threatens as in N.Y. one might as well talk to an airball as to them.
- Also I think Bk should restrict Executives to the Govs.
