[Notes as to remarks to G]

Most of Treas Com having agreed to G. for another year. he sh^d make a point of regular full disclosure of Bk affairs & of his advice qua Gov. - This is due to them as Treas Com (by long custom) & essential now to begin preparation of united front, as Enquiry after ^{WAR} war is certain - & it will be engineered with main object of substituting State Banks.

25 WEDNESDAY [299-67]

Such a Banks seems to be in minds of C & whole Treasury as well as grumblers in City & busy bodies in Parl^{ment}. Ignoring ^{as a} whole Court, we sh^d by all means assure eventual unanimity of Treas Com. & sh^d begin to work to that end.

Any one member w^d have serious effect by giving wrong evidence or opinion - Loyalty to Bk must be appealed to

By Gov back.

Discussion with Treas Com - Excepting Gov (Johnstone being absent) as to future. All unanimous that Gov shd continue another year from Apr 17. But hope expressed that Com shd hereafter be reinstated in advisory & consultative position as before the war. No back talk or recrimination. Com abrogated their rights thereto during first year or so of war. (I regret no realisation of danger arising
