* that he could not continue once anyone else was selected - that he wished to go on till end of war & that he wd be to me either a G. or an enemy.

I denied any unfriendliness - & said suggestion was contrary to earlier views of Com & wd cause gossip & scandal! outside when usual notice failed to appear in Nov

(- Explained all to DG - but cannot grow)

10 WEDNESDAY [283-82]

Oxford Michaelmas Term begins

J. Com. Apart fr question of Reorgan<sup>n</sup>. Com who was agreed. G suggested without warning that selection for next year sh<sup>d</sup> be postponed from Nov till Mch. Seems contrary to his wishes (as expressed 2 wks ago) & to then views of Com. I remarked that I did not think that was our view - & matter dropped.

Later he said to me that he much "resented" my remark wh was unfriendly - that it was in interest of Bk & Nation that he sh<sup>d</sup> continue.

(up)

Reorg<sup>n</sup>. Com app<sup>d</sup> for wh G says he sees as good. (as only accepts on urgent pleadings of M, by way of peace offering) because (1.)
 there are no Bankers (2.) No good G. could be effective with any C of J unless he could ignore them ("as I have done & sh<sup>d</sup> do again")
 But the whole position is volcanic

17 WEDNESDAY [290-75]

Mohammedan Year 1336 begins

At J. Com. proposal to agree as to postponement of selection of G. till March generally opposed. I guess that anyone but G.
would take a hint ... rather than as it seems - encourage discussion

St. Luke, Evan.

At Court G. appealed for postponement of Selection till Spring - gave no cogent reasons - & style very acrimonious. Stated eg 1. a Director bitter agst him because facilities to borrow not granted (referring to WmL.) 2. attempt already made to replace him by ACC 2 years ago 3. J. Com wished to prevent Selection coming before Court (wh was utterly untrue) - Bad effect generally

23 TUESDAY [296-69]

24 WEDNESDAY [297-68]

J.C. an acrimonious start ~~as~~ because W.M.L.
 maintained (rightly) that minutes had been doctored. They were in part amended & followed by an hours padding

W.H.B. & release of M.P. to L.S.M.

G. brought up & pleaded hard for last week's motion - admitting that he had then lost his temper & been an ass - Bitter attacks by Wm. - personal recriminations &c - who came near to moving Court in favour of motion. But eventually position clearly hopeless, & motion withdrawn by G. with good grace.

[Later G. withdrew remarks to me on 10th]

26 FRIDAY [299-66]

27 SATURDAY [300-65]

With V. & to St. Clare 8.50 am & back 7 pm. The frequency during last couple of months of her pneumonic attacks, makes it impossible for N to recuperate between them as heretofore - & the position is a most continuing grave & lean at any time for years past - esp. two winters.

28 Sunday - 21 aft Trin [301-64] (EAGW to me)
SS. Simon and Jude

Lark Thursday has altered his attitude so that now he seems only to be seeking a peaceful departure. It only shows that during the past years either the Court or J. Com or even DG could at any moment 30 TUESDAY [303-62] have asserted implicit authority & prevented the one-man show who has brought us disrepute
