Note as to visit from V. Yorke of Mex Ry Co.
 He has seen Hatfield, who has nothing new to say.
 He is satisfied with his Board
 He has as good information as anyone from Mexico
 He is doing nothing, because there is nothing to do
 He is satisfying his shareholders.
 He has a manager in Mexico, who is good & doing all possible.
 He ignores Leese's contention for a "push" in Mexico, which is based on Hatfield's wish to paddle his own canoe.
 He will sit quiet - & wait -
 I said nothing, but was wholly unconvinced

Treas^r at 11, Gov. Goschen. Leaf. Incheape Holden.

Discussion as to issue of 4% Cons stock @ 130% for funding all possible short indebtedness: not to be for cash.

Cof E. said at once he was wobbly.

Holden gave details for believing £1000 millions would fund: is about $\frac{1}{3}$ of short indebtedness: but was against doing anything.

Incheape agreed to arguments on both sides.

Leaf was uncertain.

Goschen strong for doing something but preferred Cash & Conversion.

Gov. strong for conversion only - on lines of draft prospectus:

18 WEDNESDAY [352—13]

Ultimately C. said he could only be guided by unanimous or general wish of those advisers present: their opinion on the whole agreed with his feeling & so we w^d wait & see.

Probably Cash & Conversion loan early next summer, wh^{ch} w^d perhaps be final demand for fresh borrowing.
