SS 8

[Recd. letter from H & C as to his having to leave, owing to methods of sons upbringing]

2 SATURDAY [61-304]

Arriving - apparently - to my not acquiescing in his proposals on Wed, C. has since treated me daily with ~~star~~ careful & calculated discourtesy - as well before officials as in private.

I Com. Party meeting - Proposal to cancel Notice given to Portals in 1814
that their work sh. be only for P.R.
No reason given - ? G's personal dislike?
Report of Com for app'ts - recommending adoption of Officials Report re Women turned down because I signed by me
? not approved by G (who refused to read it yesterday.) - So much for an attempt at decentralisation!

See Michl's Letter fr H. F. Happer - that storm has blown over - at least pro tem.

8 FRIDAY [67-298]

G. seems to be driving a wedge between Nannie & Harvey (latter being away ill)

Studied a open indifference to me on every possible occasion now. Clear that all must bow down to G. or risk being crushed! - so that the

J. Com. Nothing doing beyond receipt of letter fr CofEs whitewashing mixture in 1914/15 of Gooles with other Secs.

[Capt. M. Holland was killed this week]

H(8.

Cunliffe left Court - Also Wallace's.
In answer to vote of Banks (well worded by Tilden) former urged (1) free hand for Gov. for time being (with which I agree). (2) need for secrecy. Foxwell having told Com on Currency yesterday that a former Gov had declared to him that withdrawal of £20 mil in Gold fr Bk w? smother it. - This was used as underhand hit at ACC & very bitterly too.

22 FRIDAY [81-284]

At Gov Court C. read a longish speech
- of wh. to Gov + Directors knew nothing -
i. eulogising the Bankers. ii. bum-sucking
the press iii. promising, as Chairman of Currency Com, changes by statute in Bk Charter & Act of 1844. - Feeling very hot & even Dr much disgusted with such an unfriendly rival.
