How we use your information

Information we collect

By participating in this video, the Bank of England collects personal data about you (such as your image and opinions).

Why we need your data

We host and promote events in support of our functions as a regulator and a Central Bank. We therefore process your data as necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in our legitimate interests in increasing awareness of the Bank's mission.

If you provide us with any information that could be considered a special category (for example, your political opinions), we process this data in the substantial public interest.

What we do with your data

We use your video contribution as described in the Acknowledgement and Release Form. We will retain it for as long as is necessary to support our ongoing awareness activities. After publication, the information will be publicly available and may no longer be personal data for the purposes of data protection laws.

Your rights

You have a number of rights under data protection laws. To contact us about those rights, including making a request for the personal data we hold about you or to make a complaint, please see our website at www.bankofengland.co.uk/privacy or write to us at:

The Privacy Team
Bank of England
Threadneedle Street
London, EC2R 8AH

If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are processing your personal data not in accordance with the law you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

More information

The Bank's Data Protection Officer can be contacted via the details above and you can also find out more about how the Bank deals with your personal data via the 'Privacy' link at the bottom of our website.
