

School speaker requests

Full Name of school

Address of school

Postcode of school

Name of contact teacher

Job title of contact teacher

School telephone number of lead teacher

School email address of lead teacher

Confirm school email address of lead teacher

Age of students

Key Stage / Year Group

Number of students

Subject of study

Other requirements (please specify)

First preferred date (minimum of 1 month's notice)

Second preferred date (minimum of 1 month's notice)

Third preferred date (minimum of 1 month's notice)

Type of presentation requested (please pick one):

- The main roles & functions of the Bank of England plus a brief resume of the speakers' career and route into / through the Bank (suitable for students from 11-18 years old)
- Economics in practice, including the main roles & functions of the Bank of England, with the option to include more in depth information about a related subject of your choice (suitable for students from 14-18 years old)
- Activity based lesson to assist teachers in delivering the Bank of England's new education resource which introduces the economy in an engaging and interactive fashion – EconoME (suitable for students from 11-16 years old)

Additional details (e.g. speaker is required as part of a careers day / money week / PSHE project)

Are journalists invited/expected to attend?

Are you willing to complete feedback questionnaire (please pick one)

- Yes - teacher only
- Yes - teacher & students
- No

How did you hear about our talks to schools?

Is the following equipment available:

- Digital projector
- Laptop compatible with PowerPoint 2010
- Remote mouse
- Lectern
- None of the above

Terms and conditions

- We always do our best to honour our bookings but we cannot guarantee against staff unavailability, illness, adverse weather conditions, transport problems, or other factors beyond our reasonable control. If we cannot complete a planned visit, we will endeavour to notify you as soon as possible and offer you the opportunity to make alternative arrangements. If you encounter a problem that stops the visit from going ahead, we ask that you get in contact as soon as possible, to allow us to either cancel the visit or reschedule it for a later date.

Please send your completed application form to education.programme@bankofengland.co.uk