

Call for Papers

2nd BoE-CfM-EUI-LSE Workshop on International Macroeconomics and Finance

“International Dimensions of Inflation in a Deglobalising World”

18-19th May 2023, European University Institute, Florence (Italy)

The Bank of England, Centre for Macroeconomics, European University Institute and London School of Economics are jointly organising the 2nd edition of their joint Workshop on International Macroeconomics and Finance on the afternoon of May 18th, and the morning and afternoon of May 19th.

The workshop will take place at the European University Institute, Florence (Italy), and will be held in person. Keynote speakers will include Silvana Tenreyro (LSE and BoE).

We invite both theoretical and empirical contributions in all areas of international macroeconomics and finance, with a particular interest in submissions that fall under the following broad topics:

- Drivers and consequences of high inflation for monetary and financial stabilisation
- Role of exchange rates in macroeconomic adjustment in the face of deglobalisation
- Debt vulnerabilities and tail risks amidst a global tightening of financial conditions, and the role of macroeconomic policy
- Global effects of supply-side shocks, including commodities, energy and geopolitics
- Implications of deglobalisation for dominant and international currencies
- Financial-market segmentation and frictions in global financial intermediation
- Implications of trade and financial fragmentation for the international transmission mechanism and optimal policy stabilisation
- Modalities and functions of international policy coordination
- The distributional consequences of global/foreign shocks

Please submit full papers via this form \(https://forms.gle/LaXr1uWhDddEzJP26\) by 5th March 2023. Authors of selected papers will be contacted by 15th March 2023. Submitters are invited to specify whether they are willing to act as discussants.

Travel and accommodation costs will be covered for presenters not affiliated to central banks or other official institutions.

Organizers: Ambrogio Cesa-Bianchi (BoE), Giancarlo Corsetti (EUI), Simon Lloyd (BoE) and Dmitry Mukhin (LSE)