Dear Dr Carney,

The House of Commons Treasury Committee is very much looking forward to its meeting with you on Thursday 7 February. In line with Committee practice, I am writing to seek your views on a number of subjects relevant to the post of Governor of the Bank of England. I attach a questionnaire. The Committee recognises that you may not yet have developed your views on all of these issues.

Should there be other subjects upon which you believe it would be helpful for the Treasury Committee to know your views, you should not feel limited by these questions. We would also welcome any references you may wish to make in your answers to your experience as Governor of the Bank of Canada. It is possible that we may ask you for responses to further questions before the meeting.

We are likely to publish your replies at the time of your appearance at the Committee, but not before. We will publish the list of questions early in the new year. We would like your response to the questions by Friday 25 January.

Yours sincerely,

ANDREW TYRIE MP
Chairman of the Treasury Committee
