

As you explore the museum, have a go at completing the activities on this sheet.

The Stock Office

Who were King and Queen when the Bank was founded in 1694?

Find something in room that has only 1 line of symmetry

Write down one fact about Sir John Soane

The Early Years (1694-1800)

Describe the great iron chest in 5 words:

The Bank of England has produced banknotes worth one million pounds. These are known as giants. Write this amount as a number.

The Rotunda (1800-1946)

We have several statues of sculpted female figures, called caryatids, which form a circle in this room. Each are numbered with a Roman numeral.

1. What fraction of them have even numbers?

2. How many have a number on them that is in the 3 times table? _____
3. How many statues have a prime number on them? _____

Tick here if you can lift a real gold bar!

Challenge question: Can you write the current year in Roman numerals? _____

The Banknote Gallery

Identify two security features that make them hard to counterfeit (copy).

1. _____
2. _____

Write the name of a person you would like to see on a banknote and explain why.

The Modern Economy

Who owns the gold in the Bank of England vaults? _____

Connect the word to its definition:

Deposit	A card to spend money that is being borrowed from a bank.
Withdrawal	Money received after working.
Income	A card to spend money that you have put in the bank.
Debt	Taking money out of the bank.
Debit card	Money put into the bank.
Credit card	Money owed.