means a material risk taker:

(a) whose annual variable remuneration exceeds 33% of their total remuneration, and

(b) whose total remuneration exceeds £500,000.
large institution has the meaning provided in point 146 of Article 4 of the CRR.

managerial responsibility

has the meaning provided in Article 2 of the Material Risk Takers Regulation.

material business unit has the meaning provided in Article 4 of the Material Risk Takers Regulation.

Material Risk Takers Regulation

means Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No XXX/2020 of XXXX 2020 supplementing Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to regulatory technical standards on the criteria to define managerial responsibility and control functions, material business unit and significant impact on their risk profile, and other categories of staff whose professional activities have a material impact on an institution’s risk profile.

small CRR firm means a CRR firm that satisfies both Condition 1 and Condition 2, where

(1) Condition 1 is that the firm is not a large institution and either:

(a) has average total assets not exceeding €5 billion; or
(b) the firm has average total assets exceeding €5 billion but not exceeding €15 billion;

and where (in the case of Condition 1(b)):

(i) it is appropriate for the firm not to be required to comply with the rules specified in 5.3 , taking into account the nature, scope, and complexity of its activities, its internal organisation and, if applicable, the characteristics of the group to which it belongs;
(ii) the firm has a small trading book;
(iii) the total value of the firm’s derivative positions held with trading intent does not exceed 2 % of its total on- and off-balance-sheet assets and the total value of its overall derivative positions does not exceed 5 %, both calculated in accordance with the Article 273a(3) method; and
(iv) the firm is not subject to any obligations, or is subject to simplified obligations, in relation to recovery and resolution planning;

and

(2) Condition 2 is that the firm is not part of a group containing another firm which:

(a) is subject to this Part on an individual basis; and

(b) has average total assets not exceeding €15 billion either on an individual, consolidated or sub-consolidated basis.

[Note: Art. 94(3) and (4) of the CRD]

significant impact on the relevant business unit’s risk profile has the meaning provided in Article 5 of the Material Risk Takers Regulation.

significant firm

means a firm which is significant in terms of its size, internal organisation and the nature, scope and complexity of its activities.

[Note: Art. 94(1)(m) of the CRD]

small third country CRR firm means a third country CRR firm that satisfies both Condition 1 and Condition 2, where

(1) Condition 1 is that the branch operation of the third country CRR firm in the UK either:

(a) has average total assets not exceeding €5 billion; or

(b) has average total assets exceeding €5 billion but not exceeding €15 billion;

and where (in the case of Condition 1(b)):

(i) it is appropriate for the third country CRR firm not to be required to comply with the rules specified in 5.2, taking into account the nature, scope, and complexity of the activities and internal organisation of its branch operation in the UK and, if applicable, the characteristics of the group to which it belongs.

(ii) the firm’s branch operation in the UK has a small trading book; and

(iii) the total value of its branch operation in the UK’s derivative positions held with trading intent does not exceed 2 % of its total on- and off-balance-sheet assets and the total value of its overall derivative positions does not exceed 5%, both calculated in accordance with the Article 273a(3) method.

and

(2) Condition 2 is that the third country CRR firm is not part of a group containing another firm which:

(a) is subject to this Part on an individual basis and

(b) has average total assets not exceeding €15 billion either on an individual basis, consolidated or sub-consolidated basis.

small trading book

means the size of the firm’s (or for the purposes of a small third country CRR firm, the branch operations in the UK of the firm) on- and off-balance-sheet trading-book business is equal to or less than both:

(a) 5% of the firm’s total assets; and

(b) €50 million

on the basis of the assessment provided in Article 94 of the CRR, as amended by point (48) of Article 1 of CRR2.

2 APPLICATION DATES AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

2.5 A firm must apply this Part to remuneration awarded in respect of a performance year starting on or after 29 December 2020.

2.6 A firm must apply this Part in accordance with 2.1 to 2.4 as it applied under those rules as of 28 December 2020 to remuneration awarded in respect of a performance year starting before 29 December 2020.

3 MATERIAL RISK TAKERS

3.1 A firm must, save where otherwise stated, apply the requirements of this Part in relation to a person (a “material risk taker”) who is:

(1) an employee of a CRR firm whose professional activities have a material impact on the firm’s risk profile, including: any employee who is deemed to have a material impact on the firm’s risk profile in accordance with criteria set out in articles 3 to 5 of the Material Risk Takers Regulation; or

(a) all members of the management body and senior management;
(b) employees with managerial responsibility over the firm’s control functions or material business units;

(c) employees entitled to significant total remuneration in the preceding financial year, where:

(i) that total remuneration was equal to or greater than €500,000 and equal to or greater than the average remuneration awarded to the members of the firm’s management body and senior management referred to in (a); and

(ii) the employee performs the professional activity within a material business unit and the activity is of a kind that has a significant impact on the relevant business unit’s risk profile;

(d) employees whose professional activities are deemed to have a material impact on the firm’s risk profile under Articles 6 and 7 of the Material Risk Takers Regulation; or

(2) Subject to 3.2, an employee of a third country CRR firm who would fall within 3.1(1) if it had applied in relation to him or her.

[Note: Article 92 of the CRD and the Material Risk Takers Regulation]

3.2 A third country CRR firm may deem an employee not to be a material risk taker where:

(1) the employee:

(a) would meet any of the criteria in Article 4(1) of the Material Risk Takers Regulation;

(b) would not meet any of the criteria in Article 3 of the Material Risk Takers Regulation; and

(c) was awarded total remuneration of less than €750,000 in the preceding financial year; and

(2) the third country CRR firm determines that the professional activities of the employee do not have a material impact on its risk profile on the grounds described in Article 7(2) of the Material Risk Takers Regulation.

[Deleted.]

[Note: Material Risk Takers Regulation]

3.3 Where a third country CRR firm deems an employee not to be a material risk taker as set out in 3.2, it must notify the PRA, applying exactly the approach described in Article 4(4) of the Material Risk Takers Regulation.

[Note: Material Risk Takers Regulation]

[Deleted.]
4 GROUPS

4.1 A firm must apply the requirements at group, parent undertaking and subsidiary undertaking levels, including those subsidiaries established in a country or territory which is not in an EEA State.

[Note: Art. 4(1)(16) of the CRR]

[Deleted.]

4.2 A firm that is a member of a group must:

(1A) comply with this Part on an individual basis and must comply, and ensure that the other members of the group comply, with the obligations set out in this Part on a consolidated basis or sub-consolidated basis including those members of the group established in a country or territory which is not in an EEA State;

(1) ensure that the risk management processes and internal control mechanisms of the other members of the group of which it is a member comply with the obligations set out in this Part on a consolidated basis or sub-consolidated basis including those members of the group established in a country or territory which is not in an EEA State; and

(2) ensure that compliance with (1A) and (1) enables the members of the group of which it is a member to have arrangements, processes and mechanisms that are consistent and well integrated and that any data relevant to the purpose of supervision can be produced.

[Note: Arts. 92(1) and 109 of the CRD]

5 PROPORTIONALITY

5.1 A firm must comply with this Part in a way and to the extent that is appropriate to its size, internal organisation and the nature, the scope and the complexity of its activities, when establishing and applying the total remuneration policies for material risk takers.

5.3 12.2 and 15.15 to 15.19 do not apply to firm that is a small CRR firm or a small third country CRR firm.

[Note: Art 94(3) and (4) of the CRD]
12. PENSION POLICY

12.1 A firm must ensure that:

(1) its pension policy is in line with its business strategy, objectives, values and long-term interests;

(2) when an employee leaves the firm before retirement, any discretionary pension benefits are held by the firm for a period of five years in the form of instruments referred to in 15.15; and

(3) when an employee reaches retirement, discretionary pension benefits are paid to the employee in the form of instruments referred to in 15.15 and subject to a five-year retention period.

12.2 A firm that is not a small CRR firm or a small third country CRR firm must ensure that:

(1) when an employee leaves the firm before retirement, any discretionary pension benefits are held by the firm for a period of five years in the form of instruments referred to in 15.15; and

unless the annual variable remuneration of the employee:

(A) does not exceed €50,000; and

(B) does not represent more than one third of the employee’s total annual remuneration.

15. REMUNERATION STRUCTURES

15.1 In this Chapter:

(1) 15.1 to 15.14, 15.20(1), (2) and 15.21 to 15.23 apply to a firm.

(2) 15.1 to 15.23 apply to a firm that is not a small CRR firm or a small third country CRR firm.

(3) A firm is not required to apply 15.15 to 15.19 in respect of an employee whose annual variable remuneration:

(a) does not exceed €50,000; and

(b) does not represent more than one third of the employee’s total annual remuneration.
15.15 A firm must ensure that:

(1) a substantial portion, which is at least 50%, of any variable remuneration consists of an appropriate balance of:

(a) shares or equivalent ownership interests, subject to the legal structure of the firm concerned, equivalent ownership interests; or, subject to the legal structure of the firm concerned, share-linked instruments or equivalent non-cash instruments in the case of a non-listed firm; and

15.17 (1) Subject to (2), a firm must not award, pay or provide a variable remuneration component unless a substantial portion of it, which is at least 40%, is deferred over a period which is not less than:

(a) in the case of a material risk taker who is not subject to (b) or (2) or (c), three four years, vesting no faster than on a pro-rata basis; or

(b) in the case of a material risk taker who is not subject to (2) and does not perform a PRA senior management function, but is a member of the management body or senior management of a significant firm, five years, vesting no faster than on a pro-rata basis; or

(2) A firm must not award, pay or provide a variable remuneration component to a higher paid material risk taker unless a substantial portion of it, which is at least 40%, is deferred over a period which is not less than:

(a) in the case of a higher paid material risk taker who does not perform a PRA senior management function, but

(i) who meets the criteria in 3.1(1)(a) to (c); or

(ii) whose professional activities meet the qualitative criteria set out in Article 3 6(1) to 3(9), 3 6(10 2) (but only by virtue of being responsible for a committee referred to therein), 3(13) or 3 6(45)

five years, vesting no faster than on a pro-rata basis; or

(b) in the case of a higher paid material risk taker who performs a PRA senior management function, seven years, with no vesting to take place until three years after award, and vesting no faster than on a pro-rata basis thereafter.

15.20 A firm must ensure that:

(1) any variable remuneration, including a deferred portion, is paid or vests only if it is sustainable according to the financial situation of the firm as a whole, and justified on the basis of the performance of the firm, the business unit and the individual concerned;
any variable remuneration is subject to clawback, such that it is only awarded if an amount corresponding to it can be recovered from the individual by the firm if the recovery is justified on the basis of the circumstances described in 15.21(2) or in respect of a higher paid material risk taker, 15.23; and unless 15.20A applies, any variable remuneration is subject to a clawback period from the date on which the variable remuneration is awarded of the longer of:

(a) the combined deferral and retention period applied by the firm; or

(b) in the case of:
   (i) the deferred portion of variable remuneration of a material risk taker who is a member of the management body or senior management of a significant firm, six years.
   (ii) the deferred portion of variable remuneration of a material risk taker who is not a member of the management body or senior management of a significant firm, where that deferral period was five years or more, five years plus six months.
   (iii) the deferred portion of variable remuneration of a material risk taker who is not a member of the management body or senior management of a significant firm, where that deferral period was less than five years, five years:
   (iv) an undeferred portion of variable remuneration, one year.

any variable remuneration is subject to clawback for a period of at least 7 years from the date on which the variable remuneration is awarded;

in the case of a material risk taker who performs a PRA senior management function, the firm can, by notice to the employee to be given no later than 7 years after the variable remuneration was awarded, extend the period during which variable remuneration is subject to clawback to at least 10 years from the date on which the variable remuneration is awarded, where:

(a) the firm has commenced an investigation into facts or events which it considers could potentially lead to the application of clawback were it not for the expiry of the clawback period; or

(b) the firm has been notified by a regulatory authority (including an overseas regulatory authority) that an investigation has been commenced into facts or events which the firm considers could potentially lead to the application of clawback by the firm were it not for the expiry of the clawback period; and it considers on an ongoing basis whether to use the power in (4).

15.20A. In respect of a higher paid material risk taker, a firm must ensure that:

(1) any variable remuneration is subject to a clawback period from the date on which the variable remuneration is awarded of the longer of

(a) the combined deferral and retention period applied by the firm; or
(b) any variable remuneration is subject to clawback for a period of at least 7 years from the date on which the variable remuneration is awarded;

(2) in the case of a higher paid material risk taker who performs a PRA senior management function, the firm can, by notice to the employee to be given no later than 7 years after the variable remuneration was awarded, extend the period during which variable remuneration is subject to clawback to at least 10 years from the date on which the variable remuneration is awarded, where:

(a) the firm has commenced an investigation into facts or events which it considers could potentially lead to the application of clawback were it not for the expiry of the clawback period; or

(b) the firm has been notified by a regulatory authority (including an overseas regulatory authority) that an investigation has been commenced into facts or events which the firm considers could potentially lead to the application of clawback by the firm were it not for the expiry of the clawback period; and

(3) it considers on an ongoing basis whether to use the power in (2).

15.22 In respect of a higher paid material risk taker:

(1) A firm should reduce unvested deferred variable remuneration when, as a minimum:

15.23 In respect of a higher paid material risk taker, a firm must make all reasonable efforts to recover an appropriate amount corresponding to some or all vested variable remuneration where either of the following circumstances arise during the period in which clawback applies (including any part of such period occurring after the relevant employment has ceased):
