Instructions regarding reporting templates

IR.05.05 – Life premiums and claims by country

General comments

This section relates to annual submission of information for individual entities and third country branches.

Items in this template are to be reported using financial accounting conventions unless these instructions state that an item is to be reported on a Solvency II basis.

For items reported using financial accounting conventions:

1. In the event of any inconsistency or contradiction between the instructions in this document and the accounting standard reported at {basic information – general IR.01.02, row R0120, firms are to follow the instructions in this document.
2. Subject to following the instructions in this document, firms shall follow:
  - a. the recognition and valuation basis as for the published financial statements, no new recognition or re-valuation is required, and
  - b. the accounting standard reported at {basic information – general IR.01.02, row R0120 to the extent practical.

The template is based on a year-to-date basis.

Insurance and reinsurance firms shall report written premiums as defined in the PRA Rulebook glossary regardless of the accounting standard used. Other rows should be reported in a way that avoids inconsistency with the reporting of written premiums. This template shall include all insurance business regardless of the possible different classification between investment contracts and insurance contracts applicable in the financial statements.

Claims incurred shall comprise all claim payments paid in the reporting period plus change in provision for claims outstanding.

Individual entities and third country branches shall report template IR.05.05 for all countries except countries other than the home country where gross written premiums for that country are less than £100m and less than 5% of total gross written premiums.

The following criteria for the classification by country shall be used:

- For direct insurance business information shall be reported by country where the contract was entered into;
- For reinsurance business information shall be reported by country of localisation of the ceding undertaking.

For the purposes of this template “country” means:

- a. The country where the insurance undertaking is established (home country) when the contract was not sold through a branch or freedom to provide services;
- b. The country where the branch is located (host country) when the contract was sold through a branch;
- c. The country where the freedom to provide services was notified (host country) when the contract was sold through freedom to provide services.
- d. If an intermediary is used or in any other situation, it is a), b) or c) depending on who sold the contract.
