

Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin

Volume 34 1994

Contents

Recent economic and financial developments

Summary	3
”	101
”	197
”	297
Operation of monetary policy	5
”	103
”	199
”	299
The international environment	12
”	114
”	208
”	307
Financial market developments	23
”	123
”	214
”	317

Research and analysis

Fixed and floating-rate finance in the United Kingdom and abroad	34
The determination of M0 and M4	46
Asset-backed securitisation in the United Kingdom	134
Personal and corporate sector debt	144
Inflation over 300 years	156
UK trade—long-term trends and recent developments	223
Estimating market interest rate and inflation expectations from the prices of UK government bonds	232
Company profitability and finance	241
Investment appraisal criteria and the impact of low inflation	250
Regional differences and their importance for the UK economy	324
Regulating investment business in the Single Market	333
The developing Single Market in financial services	341

Reports

The role of the European Monetary Institute	51
The gilt-edged market: developments in 1993	55

The development of a UK real-time gross settlement system	163
The net debt of the public sector: end-March 1994	347
The external balance sheet of the United Kingdom: recent developments	355

Speeches⁽¹⁾

The pursuit of financial stability (S)	60
The financing of small firms (S)	67
Credit and economic policy (S)	169
The London Approach: distressed debt trading (S)	172
The conduct of economic policy	175
The role of the exchange rate in monetary policy (S)	255
The prospects for monetary stability (S)	259
The transmission mechanism of monetary policy (S)	261
Monetary policy instruments: the UK experience (S)	268
Derivatives—a central banker’s view (S)	277
Sustaining the recovery (S)	362
Recent developments in supervisory practice (S)	365

Boxes

Trends in commodity prices	14
Uruguay Round—financial services	19
Structured floating-rate notes	26
The Financial Law Panel’s Guidance Note on netting of counterparty exposures	29
CREST—an update	32
The repo and secured loan facilities	109
Annual remit for the Bank’s operations in the gilt market	112
Recent developments in the household sector	118
Hedge, or leveraged, funds	125
CREST—the first phase completed	130
The credit rating of asset-backed securities	138
Measures of gearing	145
Developments in international banking in 1993	220
A cross-sectional analysis of dividend payments	247
Trends in European trade	310
The financing of G3 current account imbalances	315

(1) Speeches by the Governors, Directors and senior officials are denoted by (S).

Adjustment in the labour market	330
Measurement issues	360
Statistical annex	71
” ”	181
” ”	281
” ”	371
Index	387