

Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin

Volume 40 2000

Contents

Summary	3
”	115
”	215
”	319

Recent economic and financial developments

Markets and operations	5
”	117
”	217
”	321

The international environment	23
”	135
”	233
”	339

Sterling wholesale markets: developments in 1999	38
---	----

Public sector debt: end-March 2000	247
---	-----

The external balance sheet of the United Kingdom: implications for financial stability?	351
--	-----

Research and analysis

Recent developments in extracting information from options markets	50
Stock prices, stock indexes and index funds	61
Private equity: implications for financial efficiency and stability	69
A comparison of long bond yields in the United Kingdom, the United States, and Germany	150
Money, lending and spending: a study of the UK non-financial corporate sector and households	159
Age structure and the UK unemployment rate	257
Financial market reactions to interest rate announcements and macroeconomic data releases	266
Common message standards for electronic commerce in wholesale financial markets	274
Economic models at the Bank of England	365
International financial crises and public policy: some welfare analysis	368
Central banks and financial stability	377
Inferring market interest rate expectations from money market rates	392

Speeches⁽¹⁾

Back to the future of low global inflation	77
British unemployment and monetary policy	88
Before the Millennium: from the City of London	103
Monetary policy and the euro	168
The new economy and the old monetary economics	173
The impact of the Internet on UK inflation	184
Monetary policy and the supply side	199
The environment for monetary policy	286
Monetary union and economic growth	288
The exchange rate and the MPC: what can we do?	297
The work of the Monetary Policy Committee	307
Central bank independence	403
Britain and the euro	408
Monetary challenges in a ‘New Economy’	411

Boxes

Interest rate option volatility	8
New estimates of the term structure of real interest rates	15
Financial market conditions over the century date change	18
Stock market and housing wealth effects on consumption in the United States	30
Merger of CGO and CMO with CREST	48
How leveraging ratchets up the returns on equity	73
The risks from leveraging	74
International funding arbitrage	130
Money market instruments	133
World import proxy	139
Asian currencies	225
Euro depreciation and inflation differentials	240
Organisations and industry bodies involved in message standardisation and automation	276
Message flows for a cash equity trade	280
The Minimum Funding Requirement review	334
Placing the external balance sheet in the context of a national balance sheet	353
Rates of return	358
FDI valuation at market prices	360
Sterling money market instruments	393

Notes

What recent movements in oil prices imply for world inflation	147
Global capital flows	244

(1) Speeches by the Governors, Directors and senior officials.

Wealth effects on consumption in the United States	348
Index	429

Issue 1	pages 1–112
Issue 2	pages 113–212
Issue 3	pages 213–316
Issue 4	pages 317–428
Index	pages 429–432