

Angus Foulis

Macroprudential Strategy
Bank of England
20 Moorgate
London
EC2R 6DA

E-mail: angus.foulis@bankofengland.co.uk

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Housing
- Macroprudential Policy
- Macroeconomics
- Banking
- Corporate Finance

CURRENT EMPLOYMENT

PhD Economist, Macroprudential Strategy, Bank of England 2013 to date

EDUCATION

PhD in Economics, London School of Economics 2013
Essays on Credit Frictions and the Macroeconomy, supervised by Gianluca Benigno

MRes in Economics, London School of Economics, with Distinction 2010

MPhil in Economics, University of Cambridge, with Distinction 2008

Graduate Diploma in Economics, University of Cambridge, with Distinction 2007

MA in Mathematics and Philosophy, University of Oxford, with First Class Honours 2005

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

PhD Internship, Prudential Policy Division, Bank of England 2012

PhD Internship, Structural Economic Analysis Division, Bank of England 2012

Research Assistant, Globalisation Unit, Centre for Economic Performance 2010-2012

Research Assistant, for Neil Monnery on the book “Safe as Houses: A Historical Analysis of Property Prices” 2011

Teaching Assistant, London School of Economics 2009-2010

WORKING PAPERS

The Residential Collateral Channel (with Saleem Bahaj and Gabor Pinter)
Centre for Macroeconomics Discussion Paper

Macroprudential Policy under Uncertainty (with Saleem Bahaj)
Bank of England Staff Working Paper 584

Bank Leverage, Credit Traps and Credit Policies (with Benjamin Nelson and Misa Tanaka)
Bank of England Staff Working Paper 539

WORK IN PROGRESS

The Role of Credit in the US Housing Boom: Insights from Tiered Housing Data

SEMINARS AND CONFERENCES

Bank of England, Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Central Bank of Ireland, London School of Economics, BoE/ECB/CFM/CEPR conference on 'Credit Dynamics and the Macroeconomy', BoE/CFM conference on 'Macroeconomics, Understanding Low Growth', Centre for Economic Performance Annual Conference, European Macroeconomics Workshop, Maynooth University/UCD/DCU conference on 'Macroprudential Regulation: Policy Dynamics and Limitations'.

AWARDS

S C Tsiang Scholarship, Economics Department, London School of Economics 2012

ESRC Open Competition Studentship, Fees plus maintenance for four years 2008-2012

Stevenson Prize, Awarded to top four students in the MPhil in Economics, University of Cambridge 2008

Stevenson Prize, Awarded to the best student in the Graduate Diploma in Economics, University of Cambridge 2007

John B Lansdell Bursary, Trinity Hall, University of Cambridge 2007

Bateman Scholarship, Trinity Hall, University of Cambridge 2007, 2008

Domus Exhibition, St. Peter's College, University of Oxford 2004